Setting up the Latitude 7320 Detachable active pen

Docking and Charging

Dell Premium Active Pen uses an inbuilt battery. The battery provides power for the tip, barrel buttons and quick-launch features.

To charge the pen, align the connectors on the pen with the connectors on the keyboard and dock the pen to the keyboard. The pen is fully charged in 30 seconds.

NOTE: The LED indicator on the pen powers off when it is fully charged.

Pairing with the computer

Dell Premium Active Pen comes pre-installed with basic software, which pairs the pen to the computer automatically as it gets close to the display.
